- 8. Orion Drainage Discussion – Mr. Iacino met with our consulting and engineering firm to get an idea if there was a simple way to fix the drainage problem on Orion. The bottom line is there is no easy way or quick fix to the problem. Mr. Iacino said this project will cost in the neighborhood of $120,000 and would also have to have about $15-20,000.00 in engineering. The Board said to keep this project “in file”. Mr. Leno said that he did go out and look at the property and he did not believe that water getting into the one man’s house was coming from the Township roadway. However, Mr. Iacino said there is damage to the driveway that the man contends was caused by water from the roadway and that could be partially true.

PARKS & RECREATION:

- 1. Concessions – Once again Mr. Alexander went over income and expenses from the first week of running the concessions at the Diamond Community Complex. A very favorable report showing profitability. He did say there were some negative remarks being made to the patrons. One of the Booster Club members said that they had no control of the stand anymore, that it was being run by the Trustees. He said that overall everything was going very well. The Coke sales were very good, ice cream was selling good along with hot dogs, etc. However, he did emphasize that we need to
